

SPENCER ETH, M.D.
Chief of Mental Health, Miami VA Healthcare System
Professor of Psychiatry, University of Miami

Dr. Eth is a graduate of New York University and UCLA Medical School and is a Rhodes Scholar, who attended graduate school at Oxford University in England. Dr. Eth was Professor and Vice Chairman of Psychiatry at New York Medical College and Senior Vice President of Behavioral Health at St. Vincent's Catholic Medical Centers of New York from 1996 to 2010, where he was instrumental in organizing the psychological response to the 9/11 attack. Dr. Eth testified before the US Senate Health Committee on the psychiatric consequences of the World Trade Center disaster on September 26, 2001, and he also testified before the US House of Representatives Committee on Oversight and Government Reform about the persistent mental health effects of 9/11 on September 10, 2007. Dr. Eth serves as the Chief of Mental Health for the Miami VA Healthcare System, and he is also a Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Miami Miller School of Medicine. Dr. Eth is the author/co-author of ninety seven journal articles and fifty three book chapters, and is the editor/co-editor of four books.

