

RYAN FOLEY
President, Foley, Incorporated

Ryan Foley is the President of Foley, Incorporated, the Caterpillar dealership serving northern New Jersey, the greater Philadelphia area, Northern Delaware, Staten Island, and Bermuda. Caterpillar is the world's leading supplier of machines, engines, and support services for customers dedicated to building infrastructure and developing and transporting resources. Foley, Incorporated, sells, rents, and services the full line of Caterpillar construction equipment, power generation units, and on-highway and marine engines, as well as an extensive array of allied rental tools and equipment. Ryan has a BSBA from the University of Vermont. He completed the Stanford University/Caterpillar, Inc. Executive Program in 2013. Ryan has served on the Board of Trustees for the Morristown-Beard School, the Board of Advisors for Tuesdays' Children and the executive board for the USASA foundation.

